<td>The San Diego City College Radio, Television and Film Department invites you and your students to a presentation on copyright for media makers. Art Neill is the founder of New Media Rights, and practices public interest law in the areas of internet, intellectual property, privacy, and media law. This talk is a practicum for today’s media maker with an emphasis on legal best practices. At no other time in history have individuals had so many opportunities to publish their creative works but very few creators understand the legal dimensions of web publication, sharing, re-mixing or Fair Use.</td>
<td></td>
