

SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE

28th Amendment Contest:

How Would You Amend the U.S. Constitution?

Award prizes for the top three amendments:

- 1st Place: $50 for San Diego City College Bookstore
- 2nd Place: $30 for San Diego City College Bookstore
- 3rd Place: $20 for Starbucks

What 28th Amendment would get us closer to the goal of forming "A More Perfect Union"?

Proposed constitutional amendments may address, but are not limited to:

- protecting a current public good
- providing a new public good
- strengthening elections and democratic integrity
- limiting or expanding government power

Read the current 27 Amendments, brainstorm reforms (additions or subtractions), draft your best idea (limit to 1 idea, 250 words or less in legible handwriting or font), and submit by one of two ways:

- 1) SUBMIT ONLINE: Send to nboushee@sdccd.edu by Constitution Day by Sept. 17th 2017, OR
- 2) SUBMIT IN PERSON: During the week of Sept. 11th to 15th physically submit entry with contact info (name, SID, email, & phone #) at the labeled physical drop box in MS440 (4th floor), i.e. the History & Political Science department student lounge.

The winners will be selected via a collaboration of public voting and political science faculty.

*TO VOTE: Visit MS 440 during Constitution Week (Monday Sept. 18th to Friday Sept. 21st) to read and vote on your favorite 28th Amendment contender.

Winners will be announced online (@SDCityCollegePolSci Facebook page), and notified via email by the close of Constitution Week (Sunday Sept. 23rd 2017).
