BRIC – TAP VISIT

The overarching purpose of the Bridging Research, Information, and Cultures Initiative (BRIC) is to strengthen inquiry-based practice at institutions. The Technical Assistance Program (TAP) is designed to collaborate with existing campus infrastructures to strengthen the capacity of the practitioners at the institution. College BRIC team members:

1. Julianna Barnes, Dean of Student Development and Matriculation
2. Randy Barnes, Dean of the School of Business, Information Technology, and Cosmetology
3. Mary Benard, Vice President of Instruction, Co-chair of Master Planning, Assessment, and Resource Oversight Council (MPAROC)
4. Dotti Cordell, Director of Student Health Services, Student Learning Outcome Facilitator
5. Salley Deaton, Professor of Business Studies, Co-chair of Master Planning, Assessment, and Resource Oversight Council (MPAROC)
6. Berta Harris, Professor of Child Development, Student Learning Outcome Facilitator
7. Jan Jarrell, Associate Professor of English for Speakers of Other Languages
8. Minou Spradley, Acting Dean of the School of Engineering, Mathematics, Sciences and Nursing
9. Peter White, Vice President of Student Services, Chairperson of Research Committee
10. Xi Zhang, Campus-based Researcher

Visiting BRIC–TAP team members:

1. Darla Cooper, Associate Director, Center for Student Success, The RP Group: Research and Planning Group for California Community Colleges
2. Jenny Redding, Basic Skills Coordinator, Oxnard College, Ventura County Community College District
3. Robert Pacheco, Director of Research, Planning and Development, Barstow College

Darla Cooper led the conversation about how the college plans, what’s working, and where the college needs to improve. Key discussions took place about developing actionable data, making program review meaningful, and relating campus culture, climate, planning and decision-making to student success. The visiting BRIC-TAP team will use the information gathered at this session to develop a BRIC Action Plan.

NEXT MEETING:  WEDNESDAY, October 13, 2010
3:30-4:30 p.m., Room D-102
