Career Technical and Vocational Scholarship

History of the Award:
Friends of Downtown San Diego was founded in 1990 when Real Estate Professionals, Eve Hager and Felicia Bell, realized the importance of sharing information and ideas with others who care about the well-being and growth of downtown San Diego. This eventually led to several outreach programs to serve the local community. The group is comprised of a variety of professionals, residents, and business owners who work or live in the downtown community.
