

Environmental Awareness Schedule Spring 2008

RecycleMania

Feb 5th & 6th – RecycleMania Kick-Off

(Elizabeth – please use same blurb as in email you sent at end of semester)

Green Speaker Series

April 10th - Benefits of Green Buildings by the US Green Building Council
11:00 - 12:30 (I think this will be in D-121b, but I will confirm on Monday)

April 17th – Environmental Justice Advocacy: Who Benefits? By Richard Dittbenner, M. A. Political Science, J. D. Law, Ph.d. study in Cleaner Production and Sustainability at Erasmus University, The Netherlands. Author of many articles on environmental issues.
9:35 – 11:00 D-121b

April 24th – An Inconvenient Truth, Michael Mooring, PhD, Professor of Biology at Point Loma Nazarene University. Recipient of numerous awards and author of many articles on environmental issues.
9:35 – 11:00 D-121

Earth Fair

April 24th 10 – 4 Gorton Quad

A day of activities including workshops, demonstrations with local organizations, restaurants and vendors including:

- Roots - a sustainable foods restaurant
- Solana Center - build your own worm farm
- O.B. People's Co-op – organic, sustainable food and fair trade information
- Light bulb exchange by City of San Diego and SDGE
Bring in up to 5 incandescent light bulbs to exchange for 5 free CFL bulbs!
Bring copy of SDGE customer bill and complete simple form
- California Center for Sustainable Energy - solar panel workshops
- California Native Plant Society
- 1st Annual Juried Photo/Art Exhibition
- Chalk drawing contest
- Solar oven demonstrations
- Understanding the effect of tobacco on the environment