AARP Women's Scholarship Program Elder Economic Security Initiative

The AARP Foundation Women's Scholarship Program third round will be open from February 3 to March 31, 2009. For more information and to download the applications visit the website <http://www.aarpfoundationwlc.org>. The scholarship is open to low-income women 40+.

Priority is given to women who are in one of three categories:

- 1) women raising the children of another family member,
- 2) those in dead end jobs and
- 3) those who have been out of the paid workforce for an extended period.

The scholarships, which range from $500 to $5,000, are to be used for tuition and books and are paid directly to the educational institution. Nearly 300 hundred women were helped through the program in the first round and about 250 women received scholarships in round two. The program is funded by AARP with generous support from the AARP Foundation Women's Leadership Circle. (Ruffo)

Environmental Stewardship Committee

Farmer's Market every Tuesday 9:30 - 11:30.
Come get your fresh organic veggies - cultivated with love by City College students.
Please bring your own bag.

Fitness Tip: It's Important to Pay Close Attention to Thirst

Thirst is your body's way of telling you it wants or needs liquids. Under normal resting conditions, thirst does an adequate job of helping you maintain water balance. If your body fluids become abnormally concentrated because you're lacking water, your brain receives a signal that makes you feel thirsty. But this happens after you are already a little dehydrated.

In some circumstances, the thirst mechanism isn't reliable. For example, among active people, thirst can be blunted by exercise and overridden by the mind. This is why its extremely important active people should drink more than required to satisfy their thirst. The thirst mechanism in young children and older adults may also lack the sensitivity needed to match their fluid needs. They may not feel thirsty even though their bodies need fluids. (Greer)
