San Diego City College

Freshman Year Experience Program (FYE)

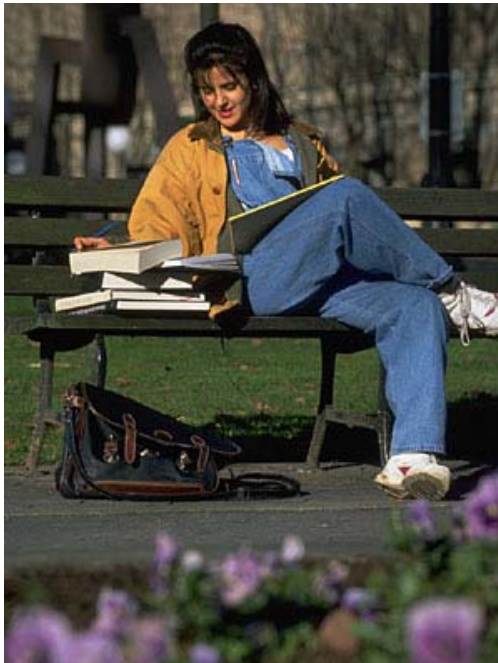

Fall 2007

What is FYE?

FYE is San Diego City College's Freshman Year Experience Program. It is designed to enhance the College freshman's first steps into a new era of change and possibilities.

The City FYE program will lend support and guidance to each student's chosen academic and career paths.

Benefits of FYE?

As a City FYE Student you will have access to special programs, activities and support services including:

- Early Registration
- FYE College Orientation
- Academic/Career Counseling
- Individualized Education Plans
- Counselor and Peer Support
- Community Learning Clusters
- Academic Networks/ Special Events
- 4- year University/College Transfer Assistance

How Can I Start FYE?

During your senior year in high school, contact a high school counselor to begin the process of becoming a City FYE participant.

- ★ Apply for admission to City College
- ★ Take the necessary College English and Math assessments
- ★ Attend FYE Orientation

If you have any questions about the program, please contact San Diego City College Outreach office at (619) 388-3496 or us at outreach@sdcity.edu
