Dear Retreat Participant:

Thank you for your commitment to teaching and learning in Learning Communities. This letter confirms your participation in the Learning Communities Summer Retreat @ Indian Hills.

This exciting event will create time and space for faculty, counselors, tutors, administrators and support staff to get away and nurture our passion and aspirations for student learning - and generally connect with each other and have fun!

Joining us at this retreat will be nationally renowned Learning Community professor Gillies Malnarich – Co-Director of the Learning Communities' National Resource Center @ The Washington Center.

This 2-day Learning Community experience will include many workshops and breakout sessions on topics including: Building a Learning Community ▲ Designing Integrative Curriculum & Assignments ▲ Effective Teaching Practices ▲ Supplemental Instruction ▲ The City College Learning Community Experience ▲ Curriculum Planning.

Please visit the website listed above for more Retreat information, including:

- ▲ Agenda & Goals
- ▲ Retreat prep: Travel form (submit before travel!), things-to-bring, directions
- ▲ Recommended readings and useful handouts!

Please let me know if you have any questions or special requests regarding your participation.

Your participation will make this a memorable experience. See you at the Retreat!

In Unity,

Elva Salinas

Learning Communities Coordinator
