

Chapman University College
Articulation and Transfer Guide
BA Applied Studies
San Diego City College
2008-2009

The Applied Studies program is offered at the following Chapman University College locations: Antelope Valley, Fairfield, Folsom, Hanford, Modesto, Monterey, Moreno Valley, NAS Lemoore, Ontario, Roseville, San Diego, Santa Maria, Travis AFB, Victor Valley, Visalia, Walnut Creek and Yuba City.

Students must complete an Associates of Arts or Associates of Science degree from a regionally accredited community college/university in the United States prior to seeking admission to the Bachelor of Arts in Applied Studies.

All requirements are upper division. No lower division community college credit applies towards major requirements unless indicated below.

Chapman University College BA Applied Studies Course requirements	Complete Associate degree from San Diego City College prior to admission
Foundation Courses (24 credits)
LBSU 305 Prior Learning Assessment Portfolio Development	Complete at Chapman
OLCU 301 Supervision and Leadership	Complete at Chapman
OLCU 350 Leadership & Professional Ethics	Complete at Chapman
CSCU 315 Organizational Information Systems	Complete at Chapman
SOCU 415 Sociology of Organizations and Institutions	Complete at Chapman
SOCU 453 Sociology of Social Conflict, Analysis, and Resolution	Complete at Chapman
OLCU 425 Leadership in Diverse and Multicultural Organizations	Complete at Chapman
Electives (12 credits) Must be upper division
Students may select courses from the following disciplines: Communication, Computer Information Systems, Criminal Justice, Food Science & Nutrition, Health Services Management, History, Human Resources, Humanities, Liberal Studies, Mathematics, Organizational Administration, Organizational Leadership, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Religious Studies, Social Science, or Sociology	Complete at Chapman Courses not eligible to be met in transfer at the lower division level.