January 2008

For Students who are interested in studying abroad and learning new languages, California State University, East Bay has an International Studies Program, where students are required to participate in study abroad (CSU has 19 study abroad programs) or in a Bay Area internship with international relevance. A number of study abroad scholarship programs are available. International studies are one of the few majors toward which students can apply modern language credits or existing language competency. For more information about the program please call (510) 885-3583 or email Norman.bowen@csueastbay.edu.
