

UC Davis Transfer Admission Agreement (TAG)

Benefits

- Guaranteed admission to UC Davis and to the major of student's choice during fall quarter only

Eligibility (to apply for the program)

- Sign the agreement in August or early September one year prior to transfer. The application period typically closes before the end of September.
- Have completed 30 UC-transferable semester units
- Have the minimum cumulative UC-transferable GPA for the college or major of choice at UC Davis, but in no case less than a 2.80 GPA (see a counselor for GPA requirements for specific colleges or majors) at the time contract is signed.
- Full-time student. (Exceptions are available for part-time students with "good cause" such as a need to balance school and employment requirements)
- No prior bachelors degree, combined four-year and community college coursework of 80 or more semester units (not including AP or IB credit and not applicable if all units are from community college), former UC students not in good standing, prior UC Davis students (summer enrollment OK), or international (nonimmigrant) students

Requirements (to transfer)

- Complete 60 UC-transferable semester units by the end of summer prior to transfer
- Complete UC subject eligibility coursework and all additional courses specified by UC Davis with a "C" or better by spring prior to transfer
- Maintain the minimum GPA specified by UC Davis in all UC-transferable coursework
- Receive no grade lower than a "C" in any UC-transferable course
- Do not attend any four-year institution or high school when or after the TAG is signed
- Maintain enrollment as a full-time student at City College. (Exceptions are available as described above)
- Submit UC Admission Application during filing period and comply with all UC requirements and deadlines

Conditions & Notes

- There are a limited number of TAG guarantees available from UC Davis. These are awarded on a first-come-first-served basis. It is recommended that students apply for the TAG as soon as possible in August or early September one year prior to transfer.
- Most UCD majors have additional GPA, coursework, or other admissions requirements

How To Participate

- Schedule a one-hour appointment with the Transfer Center Director to complete a UC Davis TAG education plan and sign the TAG contract in August or early September one year prior to transfer.

For more information, visit the Transfer/Career Center, Room A-111, (619) 388-3722