
SDCCD Police report an “All Clear” around the college area regarding the active shooter incident at the Naval Medical Center near City College.

All San Diego City College classes and services continue normal operations.