

INTRODUCTION to the Election Packet

Greetings Election Candidates!

Thank you for your interest in the Associated Students. As the A.S. Elections Commissioner, I would like to congratulate you for making the effort to improve the campus by seeking an A.S. elected position.

If and when you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to come and talk with me. I am available by appointment. If unable for some reason, you may contact another member of the committee. I encourage all candidates to read the Election Code thoroughly, and contact me immediately to answer any questions. It is wiser to seek advice now, rather than face penalties later.

My office hours are posted in on the “Election Corner Wall” located in the Office of Student Affairs.

THE ELECTION COMMITTEE

The Election Committee consists of myself, Antonio Marquez Camacho, and four other members, who are charged with overseeing the smooth running of the elections.

PURPOSE OF THIS PACKET

This packet is designed to ensure a fair, smooth and transparent election process for all candidates. You will be held responsible for all the information, policies and deadlines in this packet and in the Election Code.

READ ALL OF THIS INFORMATION CAREFULLY!

To ensure your eligibility as a candidate, you should follow the packet checklist that has been provided. Be sure to complete and return all packet documents to the Office of Student Affairs (no later than Monday, March 20, 2017 at 6 :00pm). All requested materials must be attached.

There are several important meetings and deadlines that are included in this package. Please be sure to comply with these dates and times accordingly.

Please note, to avoid possible sanctions, be sure to carefully comply with the rules of the Elections process.

BEST OF LUCK IN YOUR CAMPAIGN!

Antonio Marquez Camacho
A.S. Elections Commissioner Spring 2017

C: Elections Committee

Marciano Perez, Jr., Dean, Office of Student Affairs is the Advisor for Student Elections 2017-2018. He will work closely with the Elections Commissioner and Election Committee. SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY CAMPAIGN

GUIDELINES FOR STUDENT ELECTIONS

The following guidelines are in effect for the Student Body Election Process. For questions regarding these guidelines, please refer to the Commissioner of Elections, Elections Committee, Marciano Perez, Jr., Dean, Office of Student Affairs or Lori Oldham, Student Affairs Coordinator. Violations may result in sanctions, up to, and including removal. This document is designed to provide information in preparation for the election. Please consult the Constitution and Bylaws for additional expectations and information.

All candidates may campaign through posters, flyers, and speeches. Candidates are encouraged to develop a platform of issues and accomplishments for their election campaign. Give careful consideration to the issues and your method of delivery.

CAMPAIGN POSTERS - Campaign posters must be stamped “approved” by the Office of Students Affairs and may not exceed 3’ X 6’. Posters, flyers, banners will be placed in the designated areas listed for posting on campus. Please note that locations vary also by whether it is a banner or flier posted on campus. During the campaign period only, April 6 through April 16, 2015, additional areas designated for posting have been added which will be clearly marked throughout campus to provide additional locations for posting. To minimize damage and clean up, blue tape is to be used for posters and banners. All literature must be removed within 72 hours following the close of the polls.

Campaign slogans, posters, banners or flyers that suggest “Mud-Slinging” are not encouraged, and may not be approved by the Elections Committee or the Office of Student Affairs. No more than ONE flyer may be placed on each bulletin board not to exceed 8-½ X 11 inches. Campaigners must be aware of any litter potential caused by campaign flyers and appropriately discard flyers that become litter. You may not chalk write on District grounds, walls or other District property.

Candidates are to submit campaign materials which must contain the following on each item, “this advertisement if endorsed by [“insert the candidate’s name”] to indicate that the candidate has endorsed this campaign material.

SECURING TABLE- Candidates must secure a table from the Office of Student Affairs three (3) days prior to use in order to distribute flyers or campaign information. Tables will be provided based upon availability.

ELECTION DAYS- On Election Days, the Election Commissioner and/or member(s) of the Election Committee will be available, during office hours – 8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. to monitor voting. All City College votes will be counted and certified between Friday, April 21 through Thursday, April 27, 2017. Election Results will be posted on Friday, April 28, 2017 by 3:00 p.m.

ENDORSEMENTS – Candidates may be endorsed by student organizations and clubs. Endorsements must appear in writing as a poster or campaign flier and posted on the Elections Bulletin Board approved by the Office of Student Affairs, and located in the Office of Student Affairs.

MEDIA – Audio-Visual or interviews with the media must be coordinated by candidates and/or by endorsing organizations. The Office of Student Affairs will not set-up media coverage for any candidate.

POSTER MATERIALS – It is the responsibility of the students campaigning for office to provide campaigning materials. Material for campaign posters must be provided by the candidates except for butcher paper, which may be obtained from the Office of Student Affairs, based on availability.

ELECTION DISCREPANCIES OR COMPLAINTS – The Commissioner of Elections and the Elections Committee handle any election discrepancies or violations/complaints.

Good luck with your campaign. If you have any further questions, please see the Commissioner of Elections, Marciano Perez, Jr., Dean, Office of Student Affairs or Lori Oldham, Student Affairs Coordinator.

I have read and understand the guidelines listed above and agree to abide by them, as well as all other provisions in the Constitution and By Laws. I also understand that any discrepancy or violation may lead to a sanction, including up to my disqualification from candidacy or office, and that matters will be resolved by the Election Commissioner and Committee.

VOLUNTEER: Should for any reason an elected member of the Associated Students Government does not qualify to receive a stipend, the member will volunteer for their respective Associated Students Government position until the end of their term or resignation.

ARTICLE IX – ELECTION CODE

Section 1 – Authority. The Associated Students, as a representative student government organization under the California Education Code for the student body of San Diego City College, shall have power to codify its election processes within this election code. (See EC 76060, et. al.; Al.; ASC III, 2-5; ASC VI; ASC VIII)

Section 2 – Eligibility for Declared Candidates. All required completed courses for any Associated Students office shall be completed at the college or university level, and they shall be taken at or transferable to City College; uncompleted courses may be waived if they are to be completed before the start of the officer's term and each course instructor certifies satisfactory progress. Students on academic probation or otherwise not in good standing with the College shall not be candidates.

Section 3 – Petitions. All original petitions submitted to the Board of Directors shall carry the text of the petitions at the top of each page, each signature on each page shall be followed by the student number as recognized by the College, a submitted original petition shall be copied at cost to the Associated Students and the copy returned as receipt to the student or group making the submission.

Section 4 – Qualifying Propositions. A petition to place a non-binding initiative on the ballot shall have not less than two percent of the student body's signatures to qualify. Each proposition so qualified shall be worded in the form of a question that may be answered "yes" or "no," and the propositions shall be numbered consecutively from the date this Article is adopted, so that each one shall have a unique number.

Section 5 – Amendments to the Bylaws. On the failure by the Board of Directors to pass an amendment to the Bylaws, a petition to place the amendment on a ballot shall have not less than five percent of the student body's signatures to qualify; the Board of Directors may not prevent any qualified amendment under this Section to be placed on a ballot, and the Board must place it on the next general election ballot and must pass by simple majority.

Section 6 – Amendments to the Constitution. The students as prescribed in the Constitution shall ratify all constitutional amendments, after approval by the Board of Directors. All petitions to amend the Constitution shall be submitted to the Student Academic Senate as prescribed in the Constitution, but a petition calling for a constitutional convention shall be submitted to the full Board of Senators.

Section 7 – Special Election. All elections which are not held concurrently with the general elections for Executive Council officers or members of the Student Academic Senate shall be special elections; a special election may be called on three-fourths vote of the Board of Directors or by the presentation of a petition of at least five percent of the student body.

Section 8 - Prior Notification and Access. All elections shall be announced to the student body at least two weeks before the first day of the election; elections shall be held for not less than two consecutive days for both day and evening students; students shall not campaign or distribute campaign material within one hundred feet of any polling place during the hours of voting, and all campaign materials must comply with the regulations on file with the Office of Student Affairs.

Section 9 – Polling Personnel. There shall be at least two student poll workers, none of whom shall be declared candidates, present during the hours of voting; poll workers not otherwise employed by the Office of Student Affairs shall receive a stipend of five dollars per hour paid by the Associated Students. The President shall appoint a student commissioner of elections, who shall not be a declared candidate, but may be a student justice, for any election which is not explicitly governed by District policy; the commissioner shall manage the poll workers and otherwise assist the Dean of Student Affairs, as the Dean may require.

Section 10 – Security of the Ballot Box. Before the start of an election not otherwise explicitly governed by District policy, the commissioner of elections shall obtain the empty ballot box from the Office of Student Affairs and deliver it to the Campus Police Office. During the election, the commissioner shall escort the ballot box to and from the Campus Police Office when the polls are not open. At the end of the election, the commissioner shall seal and escort the ballot box until the appointed time of counting.

Section 11 – Publication of Results. The ballots for Associated Students Offices, propositions, and/or amendments shall be counted in the presence of both the commissioner of elections and the Dean or the other representative of the Office of Student Affairs. The unaltered result of the election shall be published in the editions of the Associated Students Newsletter and the Student Bulletin printed after the counting of the ballots.

Section 12 – Irregularities. All complaints of irregularities shall be submitted to the Student Judicial Review Board, the College Disciplinary Committee, or the College Grievance Committee as appropriate; in the absence of a quorum of the Student Judicial Review Board to hear an assigned complaint, the matter shall be resolved by a committee of students chaired by the Dean of Student Affairs. The Board of Directors may call for a special election under this Article in response to a complaint where the resolution will affect the outcome of the contested election.
