

SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE

FIRST-GENERATION COLLEGE CELEBRATION

November 8th was selected as the date for the annual National First-Generation College Celebration to honor the anniversary of the signing of the Higher Education Act of 1965. Since 2017, institutions from across the nation have celebrated first-generation students, faculty, staff, and alumni and highlighted the important contributions made within their communities.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2

First-Generation Student Success

Facilitators: Tristan Hartley, ASW and Darren Walters, MS, CRC

A space for all student veterans, active duty, and dependents to gather, share and uplift one another. There is no agenda in our group, just a space to hang out, talk about resources and offer support.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 8

A National Conversation Centering First-Gen Voices

12:00 - 1:00PM

Pre-registration Link: Registration \(gotowebinar.com\)

A National Celebration Centering First-Generation Voices will feature a panel of first-generation students and graduates sharing insight into their experience, moderated by Dr. Quintin B. Bullock, President, Community College of Allegheny County located in Allegheny Pennsylvania. It is through our understanding of the first-generation identity and experiences we may better align institution resources and support offerings to meet the unique needs of first-generation students.
