SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE

Student Health Center:

Mental Health Counseling A-180 | 619.388.3055 | sdcity.edu/MentalHealthCounseling Our goal at the San Diego City College Mental Health Counseling Center is to help students benefit fully from the college experience by supporting personal, social, and emotional well-being. We aim to support students as they balance the demands of their academic and personal lives.

Our services are paid for through the student health fee and are therefore free for any enrolled student to use. Services provided are confidential to include short-term individual, couples and group counseling, crisis intervention, and outreach/prevention. We also provide consultation and referral services to students, staff, and faculty.

Student Health Clinic Contact Us: A-180 | 619.388.3450 | sdcity.edu/StudentHealthClinic The Student Health Clinic supports the success of students by attending to the physical and psychological well-being of all San Diego Community College District students. Services include basic first aid, nurse (RN) visits, limited over the counter medications, doctor or nurse practitioner appointments, weight/blood pressure/vision screenings, lab tests, physical exams, X-ray orders, limited immunizations and flu shots, preventive care/health counseling and mental health services. There is usually no charge to see a registered nurse, nurse practitioner, or physician. However, your health fee does not cover prescription medications, lab-work, X-rays, or immunizations.

City Emergency Food Pantry BT-211 A | sdccity.edu/students/foodpantry.aspx The San Diego City College Emergency Food Pantry supports enrolled students in need by providing prepackaged items suitable for an on-campus lunch or meal. Meals are generally an entree in a package or pull top can and a granola bar, fruit cup, or other snack, along with a water cup, bowl, utensil, and/or napkin. Our goal is to help students stay nourished so they can stay focused on their studies. The City College Emergency Food Pantry is a project operated by student interns and generously supported through kind donations from the staff and faculty of City College, community partners, private individuals, neighbors, and friends. This special program accepts donations of checks and grocery store gift cards. If you would like to donate lunch or snack items, canned or dry goods, and/or personal hygiene or care items, please contact Dr. Leroy Brady at lbrady@sdccd.edu
